ABOUT ME

I didn't say a word until I was almost four years old. Looking back, I was probably just waiting for the right script. I've always been drawn to great stories and unforgettable characters. Before becoming a voice actor, I spent years as a professional photographer working alongside Emmy- and Oscar-winning filmmakers. Eventually, I realized I didn't just want to capture stories... I wanted to be part of telling them. Now you'll find me behind a microphone, bringing heroes, villains, creatures and the occasional grumpy guy to life with a warm, growly baritone and a love of character work.
